

Data Privacy Statement

In the course of our business relationship with you, it is necessary for us to process your personal data. "Personal data" is any information that relates to an identified or identifiable natural person (e.g. names and addresses).

Protecting the security and privacy of personal data of our business partners (such as customers and suppliers) is very important to Buma engineering & Anlagenbau GmbH, Lunzerstraße 89, 4030 Linz. We are obligated to protect your data and take this duty very seriously. We expect the same from our business partners.

Please find enclosed a summary of the processing of personal data of business partners:

Categories of personal data processed, purpose of the processing and legal basis

In the context of the business relationship with business partners, Buma may process personal data for the following purposes: Communicating with business partners about products, services and projects, e.g. to process inquiries from business partners.

Initiate, process and manage (contractual) relationships and maintain business relationships between Buma and the business partner, e.g. to process orders for products or services, to process payments, for accounting, billing and collection purposes, to make deliveries.

Ensuring compliance with legal obligations (such as record keeping obligations in accordance with tax and commercial law)

Settling disputes, enforcing our contractual agreements and establishing, exercising or defending legal claims

For the aforementioned purposes, Buma may process the following categories of personal data:

Business contact information, such as name, work address, work telephone number and email address;

Payment data, such as data necessary for processing payments and fraud prevention, including credit card numbers and card security codes;

Information collected from publicly available sources, information databases and credit agencies;

Other information that has to be processed to initiate, process and manage (contractual) relationships and maintain business relationships or that you voluntarily provide, such as orders placed, order details, inquiries or project details, correspondence, other data pertaining to the business relationship

The processing of personal data is necessary to meet the aforementioned purposes including the performance of a contractual relationship or a pre-contractual activity with the business partner.

Unless indicated otherwise, the legal basis for the processing of personal data is Article 6 (1)(a) (if consent has been given) or Article 6 (1)(b) or (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or for pre-contractual measures; processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party;

If aforementioned personal data is not provided or is insufficient or if Buma cannot collect the respective personal data the purposes described may not be met or the received inquiry/inquiries could not be processed. Note that this would not be considered failure to fulfil our obligations under a contract.

Transfer and disclosure of personal data

Recipients of personal data may be located in countries outside of the European Union ("third countries"), in which applicable laws do not offer the same level of data protection as the laws of the respective individual's home country. In this case, according to the legal requirements personal data is only transferred if the European Commission has adopted an adequacy decision for the third country, if adequate safeguards have been agreed (e.g. EU Standard Contractual Clauses were concluded), the recipient participates in an approved certification system (e.g. EU-US Privacy Shield), binding corporate rules are implemented in accordance with Art. 47 of the General Data Protection Regulation or there is a derogation for specific situations in account.

Basically, you have the right to access, rectification, erasure, restriction, data portability and to object. Contact us about this.

If you believe that the processing of your data contravenes data-protection law or your legal claim to protection of your data has been violated in some other way, you can complain to the supervisory authorities. The Data Protection Authority is responsible for this in Austria.
